

BAZ WANTS YOU!

INTERN OPPORTUNITY

As BAZ expand, they are looking for an intern to help with all things BAZ. You'll gain plenty of valuable experience working at a magazine that is widely recognised as a paragon of quality art journalism. After an intensive one hour course in ART JARGON (Process! Dialogue! Network!), we'll put you through a gruelling two-day course in tea making. We'll then let you loose to write our next issue all by yourself! Please email a CV, statement and 10 images of yourself to birminghamartzine@gmail.com.
